Arcadja has developed consolidate sets of auction sales data, called Arcadja indices, which are based on an in-house exclusive methodology of combining artworks sold at auction. Public auction sale data are extracted from the Arcadja price database. Arcadja Indices are the exclusive property of Arcadja.

Arcadja Analytics Reports are intended to provide market information about artworks that have sold at auction; all reports are based on Arcadja Indices to allow users to visualize market value trends for a specific artist or group of artist over time.

There can be no assurance that this informations are complete accurate or includes all available auctions market data; all informations is subject to change Arcadja disclaim any responsibility to investigate the authenticity or condition of the artworks reflected in this report. Although most auction houses report transactions prices that include a buyer's premium, some auction houses only report the hammer prices. Based on analysis of historical auction catalogs, partner applies a formula to all records with hammer prices only to estimate the effect of a buyer's premium. All prices in the Analytics Reports are therefore either reported as, or equated to, hammer price plus buyer's premium .

Users of arnet Analytics Reports are advised to consult with art and financial experts about the interpretation and usefulness of informations contained therein, Please see the Arcadja Report product page available on www.arcadja.com for details about methodologies utilized.
